November 2021

God's Children, historically and intentionally diverse, daily sent on Christ's mission of love and grace

A Moment for Reflection

Autumn is my favorite season. Some people say they don't like it because of what comes next. But I try to live in each season as it comes and not think too far ahead. I have found if I think too much about what comes in the future, I miss the important things in the here and now.

The dying autumn leaves with their brilliant colors convey a sense of beauty about death to me especially since I am a Christian and know that the death of our mortal bodies is only a stepping stone to a life more glorious than we can imagine. Peter Jarret, C.S.C. , Adjunct Instructor at the University of Notre Dame, wrote this prayer concerning the season of autumn:

"God of all creation, You give us the gift of the seasons to mark our journey through time. The season of autumn, with its change of colors and falling leaves, reminds us that sometimes things must die and fall away for new life to arise. Such is the message of the cross—that through death to self we find life in all its richness. In those moments when we experience setbacks for failures, help us to remember that you are with us always, and that there is no failure or sin your love cannot heal. Help us to trust in you and your promise of new life. Amen."

'May we all see autumn as a beautiful necessity for the promise of new life.

*God's Blessings,
Stephanie*
