God's Children, daily sent on Christ's mission of love and grace

A Moment for Reflection

Greetings Church Family and Friends,

As you all know, I am a lover of poetry. I wish I could write beautiful verses, but alas I am not gifted with that ability. I can appreciate the verses of others though, especially of the poets from years past.

Every Christmas I reread a poem that was in the December newsletter from the church where my family were members. It made such an impression on me, that I have kept it ever since. I have probably shared it with you at some time, but I would like to share it again. That newsletter stated that the author was Conrad Hilton the great hotelier. But I have researched and I cannot corroborate this information. Whoever wrote this poem, wrote a beautiful expression of a miraculous event.

In the Stillness of the Night

The silent night was a holy night. All was calm. Bethlehem slept. In silence He came to Mary. In silence He comes to us, when we are free of the noise of men, and from the desires that tempt our human nature.

His wondrous gift to man was given in the stillness of the night. For silence is the "virtue of the strong, the refuge of the weak, the modesty of the proud, and the prudence of the wise." Silence is a preface to prayer; it is the prologue to progress; it is a requisite of peace. Be still, my soul, that I may hear him in the silence of this Christmas night.

May we all be able to take time out from the hustle and bustle of the season to receive our Savior in the stillness of the night.

Merry Christmas,
Stephanie
