God's Children, daily sent on Christ's mission of love and grace

A Message from the Pastor
January 2026

Happy New Year!!!

We enter this year with anxious anticipation, waiting to see what God will do in our lives. Let us remember that we are not just observers, but actors in this journey of life and so, we are called to work while we wait.

Paul wrote to the Philippians: “Do all things without murmuring and arguing, so that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, in which you shine like stars in the world. It is by your holding fast to the word of life that I can boast on the day of Christ that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. But even if I am being poured out as a libation over the sacrifice and the offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you—and in the same way you also must be glad and rejoice with me.” (Philippians 2:14-18).

These words ring true for us today as well. We are called to work with God towards justice and righteousness, rejoicing as we use our gifts to help our Lord straighten crooked paths and bring light to dark places. We are called to joyfully work alongside God to generously saturate the world with God’s merciful grace. We are called to reflect God’s love to the world, as we build relationships with friends, family, and community members – all the while demonstrating the characteristics of a healthy relationship that we have learned from our relationship with God.
