From the Music Corner

The last of the 50 Great Days of Easter have passed, and wasn't John's sermon on Pentecost Sunday especially wonderful? The blessings of spring with it's flowers and fresh verdant hills is so very welcome.

On Father's Day, June 21, Kevin Matheson and I will present a concert of violin and piano music. Beethoven's final violin sonata will be the featured work; the balance of the program will consist of works by Debussy, Ravel and Waxman. Please invite a friend to the concert at 4 pm and to the reception which will follow.

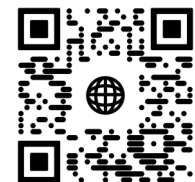

Our choir continues to meet at 5 pm on Wednesday afternoon and new singers are always most welcome!
