God's Children, daily sent on Christ's mission of love and grace

The Heritage Minute

Thought that maybe there might be some interest in the history of our church so each month there will be a short "minute" of how we got where we are today. The information I will use is taken from a history book from our historical room written for the Centennial Celebration in 1989. You'll be getting the very condensed version!

The Presbyterian Church of Bluefield (now First Presbyterian Church) was organized on 24 April 1889 by a commission of the Presbytery of Montgomery, Synod of Virginia, at its spring meeting in Liberty, Virginia (now Bedford, Virginia). At that time there was no church building so the Bland Street Methodist Episcopal Church South in Bluefield invited the congregation to use their building until they could build their own place to worship. Since our church was organized it has been a part of Montgomery Presbytery, Synod of Virginia; Greenbrier Presbytery, Synod of West Virginia; Highlands Presbytery, Synod of the Virginias; and now the Presbytery of West Virginia, Synod of the Trinity.
